About CQ Products...

With more than 30 years of experience, CQ Products creates books that are trusty and trendy, as well as unique and practical. With our top-selling cookbooks, CQ Products caters primarily to the gift market for one simple reason – our books make great gifts!

Independent gift stores consistently find success with our products – products that are not found on every street corner or in big box stores. Located in Waverly, Iowa, this privately-owned, family-based business is honored to be one of the few remaining book publishers that print and assemble our books in America.

We make it easy for you to profit by offering fantastic pricing, quick shipping and a low minimum order. It's always simple to reorder and restock your inventory. Unlike other publishers, we do not print pricing on our books allowing you to achieve the highest possible return. Use our suggested retail price ranges as a convenient guide.

With new titles scheduled to release three times a year, we are always cooking up new ideas – with the most delicious results!
